MAKE A HAWAIIAN VALENTINE

Are you stuck on what to get for your special valentine? Kahana Valley State Park will host a lauhala workshop for those interested in making valentine presents out of lauhala on Saturday, February, 12 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Participants will learn to make roses, bracelets, baskets, fans, hat bands, picture frames, bow ties and hair pieces. There is a $2.00 fee and participants should bring a non-perishable lunch. Cold drinks and materials will be provided. Each person will be able to make at least two of the above articles.

Call the state park office at 237-7766 for more information. The park is located on the windward side of O'ahu between Ka'a'awa and Punalu'u at 52-222 Kamehameha Highway.
